ATTENDANT PASS INFORMATION

Where are passes accepted?

- City of St. John's Events & Activities
- Arts & Culture Centre
- Holy Heart Theatre
- LSPU Hall
- The Works/Aquarena
- Metrobus
- Mary Brown's Centre
- The Rooms

Other venues may accept attendant passes. Please call the venue directly to confirm.

How are tickets purchased and used?

Tickets may be purchased in person or by phone. Unfortunately, at this time, most venues cannot process attendant pass tickets online. Pass holders will pay the regular event fee and the attendant's ticket is used complimentary (free) or at a reduced rate. Passes must be present when purchasing/pick up tickets and when entering the activity/event. If purchasing by phone, venue staff may ask for the pass number and expiry.

What does the attendant pass look like?

The attendant pass is a plastic pvc card that displays the pass number, name, requirements (e.g. wheelchair seating), issue and expiry date as well as a photo of the applicant.

What should I do if I have lost my pass or my information has changed?

Contact Inclusive Services staff to have your pass replaced or your information updated.

Who should I contact for information about the attendant pass?

Information regarding attendant passes and other inclusive services can be found online at www.stjohns.ca. Inclusive Services staff can also assist you with questions regarding attendant passes.
